Down Syndrome Indiana™

1 October 2026

Dear Educator

Down Syndrome Indiana is hosting a FREE VIRTUAL conference on Saturday, November 14th from 11:30am - 2:30pm EST. Join us for an engaging conference, Supporting Positive Behavior in Children and Teens with Down Syndrome, featuring Dr. David Stein.

This event will include:

- A 90-minute keynote presentation and Q&A with Dr. Stein, offering expert insights into fostering positive behavior in children and teens wtih Down syndrome.
- A 60-minute interactive breakout session moderated by local experts, covering a range of behavior-related topics.

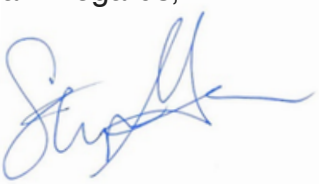

Don't miss this opportunity to learn practical strategies and connect with professionals dedicated to supporting individuals with Down syndrome.

Please note that this conference will NOT be recorded.

To learn more or to register, visit https://dsindiana.org/dsi-annual-conference/.

Down Syndrome Indiana is your one-stop-shop for information and resources related to Down syndrome! DSI supports families from diagnosis through adulthood and have many educator resources. We are grateful for the hard work of all the educators within this school district.

Warm regards,

Stephanie Garner
Director of Parent Support & Education
Down Syndrome Indiana